

Word Processing Software

What is it?

“Processing” means...

- a continuous action, operation, or series of changes taking place in a definite manner
- a systematic series of actions directed to some end
- to treat or prepare by some particular process

So what does “word processing” mean?

“Word Processing Software”

- computer application used for the production (including composition, editing, formatting, and possibly printing) of any sort of printable material. (Wikipedia)

Old Examples

- Typewriters

- Word Processors

Software for the computer

- Microsoft Word
- Notepad
- WordPad
- WordPerfect
- OpenOffice

Software for online use

- Mostly FREE!!!!
 - Google Docs
 - Zoho